Donors like you, continue to write the success story of SEF every year. Your passion and commitment to help the fellow Sri Lankans through the SEF fund has opened the way for needy students to realize their dreams. As a non-profit organization, our aspiration is to increase the membership and contribution to the highest level possible so that every needy student who falls into the "Qualified" category can / able to receive adequate funding to pursue their educational dreams. For this we need your participation and support, as our success only lies with your generosity and understanding of the cause.

Here are few ways how you can help us;
